Celebrating 60
First Profession—4/8/1959

Sister M. Celine Matsumoto, SSND

Sister M. Celine Matsumoto was born in Kyoto, Japan, and made her first SSND profession of vows in 1959 at Shishigatani, Japan. She has served on staff at the Karasaki House of Prayer in Otsu, Kyoto, assisting as a translator and with adult evangelization efforts. Sister M. Celine devoted many years as a faculty member of Notre Dame Women's College, also in Kyoto. She holds a bachelor's and master's degree in English, both earned from the University of Sacred Heart in Japan, in 1955 and 1961, respectively.

A memory I have to share...

For 60 years, I have kept in touch with graduates of Notre Dame Women's College. Currently, I take part in Alumnae Association activities. I go as a friend not a teacher. We share our joys and sorrows. The graduates are always my pride and joy.
